Through to Bar Harbor

The President Enthusiastically Received.

HEARTILY GREETED EN ROUTE.

Large Crowds Assemble at Every Station to Cheer Him on His Way—His Final Arrival at the Blaine Cottage Where He is Resting From the Fatigues of the Journey.

BAR HARBOR, Me., Aug. 9.—The special train with President Harrison and party, President Lord, of the Boston and Maine railroad, Lieutenant Governor Brackett and members of the governor's staff, and a corps of newspaper men, pulled out of the Boston and Maine depot at 9 a. m., en route to Bar Harbor. A large crowd witnessed the departure, which was made to the accompaniment of a salute of Battery A and the continued cheers of the crowd.

The first great demonstration after the departure from Boston was made at South Lawrence, where the special stopped. An enormous crowd cheered as the train came to a standstill, and a salute was fired. President Harrison went to the rear of his car and heartily shook the hands of hundreds.

At South Berwick, on the Maine side of the river, the train stopped to take on board Adj. Gen. Sprague, Gen. Harper and Col. Philbrick and Boothby, of the governor's staff, and there was more cheering. Governor Burleigh had intended to meet the train at South Berwick, but was prevented by illness, and Gen. Sprague welcomed the president instead.

At North Berwick Congressman Reed joined the president in greeting the people, and presented to Mr. Harrison some of his constituents, whom the president shook by the hand. At Old Orchard the summer residents and permanent population turned out en masse and gave the president a hearty reception.

The president devoted most of the time between North Berwick and Portland, to chatting with Mr. Reed. The train reached Portland at noon, about fifteen minutes late. There the Boston and Maine officials said good-by and the Maine Central officials took charge. The president was greeted by a great crowd at the depot here. A little child was lifted over the heads of the crowd to pass the president a bouquet, which he received with a bow and a smile. Congressman Reed introduced the president to the crowd, which cheered lustily as the president bowed. The train halted only five minutes.

At Brunswick an immense crowd awaited the arrival of the train and a salute of twenty-one guns was fired. The reception of the president, who was introduced by Mr. Reed, was very enthusiastic. The president, in response to the ovation, bowed and said: "Thank you, gentlemen." A small bouquet was handed to the president, and as the train moved off the crowd gave three cheers for Mr. Reed.

The train made a short stop at Gardiner at 1:40 p. m. The only other stop before reaching Augusta was near the Kennebec arsenal, where a salute was fired from the river bank.

At Augusta an immense crowd was in waiting when the train arrived. It was a typical Maine gathering, and as the train came to a standstill the president was given an old-fashioned Maine cheer. The president walked out upon the platform and was introduced to the assemblage by Mayor Lane. Then the cheering began again, and the president grasped many of the scores of hands which were held out to him. There was a good deal of pulling and hauling, as the crowd was packed closely together, and the president seemed to enjoy it. The stop was for but a few minutes, and the president again entered his car, and the train moved off amid a storm of cheers.

On leaving Augusta the president sat down to lunch with Senator Hale. The repast was interrupted by the arrival of the train at Waterville, where there was a large crowd assembled on the green in front of the depot. A salute greeted the president as he left the train for the first time since the departure from Boston. He was escorted by the governor's staff to a platform near by, and was introduced to the people by Mayor Mcader, who said: "It is our glad and pleasant privilege to welcome our beloved president."

The band played a moment and President Harrison spoke as follows: "The preparations which have been made here are more suggestive of a speech than those I have seen at any other place on my route. I came from Washington with a resolute purpose to make no speeches. The purpose of my coming to Maine, as you well know, was to visit your distinguished citizen, my personal friend and cabinet officer, James G. Blaine. [Great cheering.] I beg you will, therefore, allow me simply to thank you for the cordiality with which you have greeted me; to wish you all good, and to bid you good-by."

Amid cheering the president returned to the train and to his lunch. Afterwards he devoted himself to a chat with Senator Hale.

Both gentlemen went to the rear of the train when Bangor was reached, about 8:30 p. m., while a salute was being fired. The depot platform was packed with humanity. So great indeed was the crowd that hundreds of the people couldn't get a glimpse of President Harrison till the train moved off again. Congressman Boutelle, Hon. Hannibal Hamlin, Mayor Bragg, ex-Governor Davis and other prominent gentlemen chatted pleasantly with the president for a minute or so.

Mr. Hamlin said: "The arrangements ought to have been so that we could have extended to you the hospitality that is in our hearts."

Congressman Boutelle introduced the president to the multitude, who gave three rousing cheers. The president shook hands with those fortunate enough to reach him, and was again cheered as the train rolled away.

The run from Waterville to Bangor, fifty-five miles, was made in sixty-two minutes. A new engine lavishly decorated, and bearing at its front a framed portrait of the president, was taken on at Bangor.

The train reached Ellsworth on time. Accompanied by Senator Hale the president passed to the rear platform, where he was greeted by a sea of upturned faces. The mayor of the city and Judge Emery, of the supreme court, were personally introduced, and more handshaking was indulged in. Senator Hale took leave of the president at this point.

Save for an occasional cheer as the train dashed through a station or past a field, there was nothing of ordinary until Mt. Desert ferry was reached. There another crowd was met, and it was a great one, considering the size of the place.

Secretary of State Blaine, who had come over on a special steamer from Bar Harbor, walked along the platform between the people, and stepping into the private car greeted the president. He was followed closely by Congressman Henry Cabot Lodge, of Massachusetts. With but a few moments' delay the president and Mr. Blaine, followed by the others of the party, left the cars and walked through the crowd to the steamer Sappho, which was gaily decorated. The Sappho had but few passengers besides the presidential party.

On arriving at the wharf at Bar Harbor a salute was fired by the revenue cutter Woodbury, and the salute was re-echoed from the yachts in the harbor, most of which were prettily decorated. At the same time the crowd on the wharf went up rousing cheers, and the band played a spirited air. The president and Mr. Blaine walked arm in arm along the wharf to the street, where the carriages were in waiting.

While the lively carriage containing the president and Mr. Blaine was turning a corner, it ran into another carriage and a wheel of the latter vehicle was smashed. Mr. Walker Blaine, Mr. Halford and Mr. Lodge followed in a carriage drawn by Mr. Blaine's horses, and a number of other carriages fell in behind, making quite a procession through Main street, while the piazzas of the hotels were filled with onlookers. Many of the buildings were deserted and at several points along the route cheers for the visitors were raised. But when the procession turned out of Main street, to proceed to Stanwood, Mr. Blaine's cottage, the streets contained no crowds and few decorations. On reaching the cottage the president and party were welcomed by Mrs. Blaine and quickly made themselves at home.

In the evening the president dined quietly with the Blaine family and rested from the fatigues of the day. Just what he will do to-day is a little uncertain, but it is expected he will take luncheon with Aulick Palmer, dine with Mr. Blaine and in the evening enjoy the hospitality of the Canal club. A visit to Moosehead lake and a popular reception at Bar Harbor are among the features in prospect.

CUSSED THEIR MAKER.

A Farmer Struck Dead By Lightning—Another One of the Same Kind.

OTTAWA, O., Aug. 9.—Some time last August a farmer by the name of William Mungan, who resides in Perry township, this county, went out to his farm to plow up a field preparatory to sowing it in wheat, but the land being very dry and hard, and therefore difficult to break up, Mungan cursed the soil and damned away his own eyes, and said: "If I ever come here again to plow up this land may God Almighty damn my soul or blast me."

Yesterday morning Mungan went out to the same field and commenced plowing it up. There was not a cloud in the sky, but no sooner had he begun plowing than a small cloud appeared in the sky, and as Mungan had turned a corner of the portion of the land which he had laid off to be plowed, he was hit by a bolt of lightning and instantly killed.

Thomas Milligan, a farmer living in Farmer township, while breaking up some ground for seeding, cursed his Maker for over an hour, applying hard and blasphemous oaths to Him, but before noon he was rendered speechless by his profanity, and by night he was dead. This is supposed to be a judgment sent on him for his wickedness.

Two Vessel in Collision.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mass., Aug. 9.—Schooner King Philip, Cassidy, South Amboy, of and for Eastport, Me., with coal, was run into near Pollock Rip yesterday during a fog by the schooner T. P. Dixon, of New York, lime laden, and was cut through the starboard bow below the water line and lost her gear. She shifted cargo, bearing the leak out of water, and made for this port. At Handkerchief shoal the steamer Wilkesbarre, Boston for New York, took her in tow. At Cross Rip the Philip was towed under and now lies in six and one-half fathoms, six miles east by south of Cross Rip light. The captain and crew were landed here by the Wilkesbarre.

Series Loss to Farmers.

MAZEPPA, Minn., Aug. 9.—The heaviest rain storm experienced in many years, accompanied by wind and hail, passed over this place yesterday, blowing down many trees, chimneys and outbuildings. The loss to farmers in small grain will be large.

The Cokers' Strike.

Everything Quiet in the Connellsville Region.

GREAT HOPE FOR THE STRIKERS.

There Are Not More Than Fifteen or Twenty Men Working in the Entire District—Operators Willing to Compromise—Labor Troubles Elsewhere.

PITTSBURGH, Aug. 9.—Reports from the Connellsville coke region proclaim everything quiet, and that not more than fifteen or twenty men are working in the entire district. Several small operators, controlling in all about 500 ovens, have conceded the demands of the advance. Their workmen have notified them that they will return to work immediately provided the operators will sign their scale, in which the minimum rate for mining is one cent.

The supply of coke is rapidly diminishing, and will be entirely exhausted in a few days. Jones & Laughlin, of Pittsburgh, have banked one furnace; the Cambria iron company at Johnstown is running very short; the Scottsdale furnaces are already banked, and Wheeling, W. Va., furnaces are reported banking. Pittsburgh iron firms having ovens, some of which have been lying idle for years, are now charging them, preparatory to making their own coke.

There is a large and sudden demand in pig iron, and prices are advancing rapidly.

The American Manufacturer, the recognized organ of the iron and coke manufacturers, says that the coke strike will be a success; that the workmen would be foolish to allow their wages to remain at the old rates, and that coke manufacturers should not allow the pig iron producers to drive them below the cost of production.

The Cokers' Win at Everson.

EVERSON, Pa., Aug. 9.—The coke strike is settled and the men have won. At a conference here yesterday between the operators and men, which lasted six hours and was very lively, the strike was settled on the ninety-five cents per hundred bushel rate. This is an advance of not less than an average of from fifteen to twenty cents in some instances and 50 per cent. in others. A pacific clause has also been put in the scale that no man shall be discharged for participating in the strike. About 11,000 ovens will start at once. This is a great victory for the men, and will be the means of strengthening this organization.

No Prospect of a Settlement.

JOLIET, Ill., Aug. 9.—After wrangling all day the coal operators and miners, and the arbitration committee failed to reach an agreement. The news of the Streator settlement seemed to stiffen the coal operators and they refused to grant any concessions, while the miners, as stoutly refused to accept the ten cents per ton reduction, but made a proposition to settle on a five cent reduction, which was promptly refused. One of the miners said: "This means a strike all winter."

A Strike for Better Wages.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 9.—About twenty-five cabinetmakers in William Kleeman's store fixture factory, 498 Richmond street, struck yesterday for better wages. The leader is William Ehl, who has been employed there about two months. Mr. Kleeman says his employees average over $10 a week, which, he claims, is better wages than is earned in most factories or the kind.

Discharging Machinists.

WHEELING, W. V., Aug. 9.—General Manager Odell and Superintendent of Motive Power Crowell, of the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad company, visited here this morning and gave orders for the discharge of sixty machinists and carpenters from the shops.

Misfortune to a Yachting Party.

CAPE MAY, N. J., Aug. 9.—The yacht Manatee returned here yesterday afternoon, because of a compound fracture of the right thigh sustained by Mr. Fessenden. The party are at the Stockton hotel for a week, and Mr. Fessenden will probably be detained much longer. He is doing well now but no one is allowed to see him. The other members of the party are Senator Quay, W. C. Goodloe, Col. A. L. Conger, Col. Snowden, Senator Fassett, of New York, and Capt. Ben. Sooy.

Sioux Commission Starts Home.

MANDAN, Dak., Aug. 9.—The Sioux Indian commission finished their mission among the Indians last night and took their departure for this place where a special car awaited their coming. They were attached to the regular midnight train at Mandan and will run straight through to St. Paul, where they will take the Northwestern line for Chicago, arriving there Friday morning at about 9 o'clock.

An Unpopular Chairman.

NIAGARA FALLS, N. Y., Aug. 9.—In the National Electric Light Association convention yesterday, St. Louis was agreed on as the next place of meeting. A new constitution was adopted, but a ruling of the chair leaves some doubt as to which constitution is at present in force. The convention adjourned sine die. Much ill-feeling was exhibited in the closing hours over the action of the chairman.

Fined for Killing Fish With Dynamite.

COLUMBUS, O., Aug. 9.—John Richards was tried in justice McFadden's court yesterday for using dynamite to kill fish in the Scioto river contrary to the laws of the state, and was fined $100 and sentenced to one hour's imprisonment.

ON THE RACE TRACK.

Belle Hamlin Defeats Harry Wilkes in a Special Trot for $10,000.

BUFFALO, N. Y., Aug. 9.—The weather yesterday at the driving park was excellent, the track fair, and the crowd the largest ever on the grounds at a circuit meeting, numbering not less than 25,000.

BELLE HAMLIN.

The great event of the day was the contest between Belle Hamlin, owned by C. A. Hamlin, of Buffalo, and Harry Wilkes, owned by the Sire Brothers, of New York, for a special purse of $10,000. It was after 2 o'clock when the great special race was called, and some time later before they got started. The great New York gelding sold $50 to $80 before this heat in the auction pools. Belle Hamlin was the favorite for the heat in the Paris mutuels.

HARRY WILKES.

The general impression was that Belle would win a heat anyway. Nobody thought that Wilkes would have a walk-away, but the knowing ones expected him to win the race in two of the three heats to be trotted. Sire Brothers backed the gelding heavily, but so far as known, Mr. Hamlin bet but little. The result was a surprise to many.

The two horses started even on the second scoring, and Belle was never far enough ahead to let the sky show between them. Time—0:34, 1:07, 1:40, 2:15. In the second heat they went neck-and-neck to the half in 1:07, when Belle took the lead. On the home stretch Wilkes quit, and the last half was trotted in 1:10. Belle won, hands down.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTIONS.

The Deadlock Ended at Helena—Proceedings of the Other Meetings.

HELENA, Mont., Aug. 9.—The deadlock in the constitutional convention over the question of location of the capital, was continued yesterday without change. The opposition to Helena is formidable, and in fact the cities which are at rivalry among themselves, all agree on the watch word, "Anything to beat Helena."

Bozeman was ahead in the morning, but in the afternoon she was defeated, and Missoula substituted, by a vote of 34 to 32. Then Anaconda was substituted for Missoula, 36 to 30. A motion to strike out the clause locating the capital was then carried. This leaves the capital at Helena for the present.

At Olympia, Wash.

OLYMPIA, Wash., Aug. 9.—The constitutional convention adopted the report of the committee on public buildings. It provides that the question of locating the capital shall be submitted to the people. In the meantime the capital is to remain at Olympia. The question of woman suffrage at school elections was left for the legislature to pass upon until the November election in 1890, when it shall be submitted to the people. The convention spent the afternoon in discussing the legislative article and passed upon the most of it.

Almost Completed.

BISMARCK, Dak., Aug. 9.—The constitutional convention adopted the report of the committee on legislative apportionment. The school lands section was also adopted. The committee on revision and adjustment will report next Tuesday when it is expected the constitution in its entirety will be adopted.

A Short Adjournment.

BISMARCK, N. Dak., Aug. 9.—The constitutional convention adjourned last night until Tuesday, when the delegates will sign the constitution.

St. Defauter Tate.

FRANKFORT, Ky., Aug. 9.—The picture of the man arrested at Scottsboro, Ala., and thought to be ex-Treasurer Tate, was received by Governor Buckner yesterday. The photograph bears no resemblance whatever to Mr. Tate, but is a very striking likeness of Dave Willer, of Louisville. No application has as yet been made to the governor for extradition of Tate. The correspondent of The Birmingham Age-Herald, who formerly lived in Frankfort and who went to Scottsboro to identify the prisoner, published a daily paper here in 1880. He has not been in Frankfort nor has he seen Tate for eight years.

Still Fighting at Port-au-Prince.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The steamer George W. Clyde, from Hayti, reports that the attack on Port-au-Prince was still in progress Aug. 2. It was reported, however, that Hippolyte had landed a force on the opposite side of the island and was about to attack the city from the rear, in which case he would have a decided advantage.

COUNTY—ELECTION, AUGUST, 1890.

For County Judge—THOMAS R. PHISTER.
For County Clerk—T. M. PEARCE.
For County Attorney—C. D. NEWELL.
For Sheriff—JOHN W. ALEXANDER.

For Coroner—M. T. COCKRELL.

SHARP, for State Treasurer, got 150 majority in Robertson.

SWOPE AND BARRETT, who declined a Republican nomination for Treasurer because they were afraid of being elected, ought to run for Senator, as the Democratic majority on joint ballot will be ninety. No danger there.—Louisville Times.

OUT of the nineteen State Senators elected the other day in Kentucky but three are Republicans, and there are but four Republicans among the nineteen holdovers. At this rate it will not be many years before the Senate will be solidly Democratic.

THE Democrats of Fleming surprised themselves the other day by rolling up a majority of 231 for Burns, their nominee for Representative. They laid aside past differences, nominated a good man, then "got together" and knocked the Republicans out in fine style.

THAT warrant against Blocks-of-Five Dudley, issued last fall, is still in the hands of the officers, and he is still a wanderer in other States. The fact that he hasn't ventured within the borders of Indiana is strong evidence of his guilt. The guilty dread the law's shackles.

"A POINTER FROM POYNTZ."

He Corrects a Statement From the Washington Correspondent of the Louisville Times.

WASHINGTON, August 7.—Mr. Joseph A. Sparks, of Lewis County, who is here waiting for an appointment, says that State Senator Poyntz, of the Maysville district, has declared his intention to vote for Hon. James B. McCreary for United States Senator. There will be many more such counties to hear from.

The above is a special sent to the Louisville Times. It was shown to Mr. Poyntz this morning and he authorizes the BULLETIN to state that he has declared no such intention.

He has given the matter very little thought, doesn't know who all may be candidates and has made no pledges to any one, either for the position of U. S. Senator or any other office to be filled by the next Legislature.

No Bertha M. Clay.

The readers of Bertha M. Clay's novels will be surprised to learn that there is no Bertha M. Clay. A Chicago newspaper says: "An English writer, named Charlotte M. Braeme, wrote stories for an English family newspaper. As fast as they appeared they were stolen by a story paper in New York, who attributed them to 'Bertha M. Clay,' a fictitious name which they invented, and without the knowledge of the author. Mrs. Braeme died in 1883, but so popular had the stories of 'Bertha M. Clay' become that the proprietors of the paper hired a number of writers to furnish similar stories, all attributed to 'Bertha M. Clay,' and thus have kept the name before their readers ever since."

An Amusing Incident of the War.

"One of the funniest incidents that happened under my supervision during the war," said Colonel Mosby, "occurred in a cavalry fight in the Shenandoah Valley along in 1864. In the midst of a sharp cavalry engagement with Sheridan's men in a charge near Berryville there came crushing like a whirlwind into our lines a Yankee soldier on a big black horse. A score of men tried to stop horse and rider, but the old black's blood was up, and he went on clean through the lines before he was under control. The rider was sent to Libby Prison, and we mustered the black charger into the Confederate service. A few days later we charged some of Custer's men, and I'll be d—d if that old horse didn't return the compliment by carrying a 'reb' into the federal lines and never came back."

Cancer of the Tongue From Smoking.

(Washington Press.)

Walter Reynolds Mears, a clerk of the Sixth Auditor's office, died at 3:30 o'clock yesterday morning at his home, 2408 I street. About a year ago the deceased, who had been an inveterate smoker, noticed a small white spot on the back part of his tongue. He consulted several physicians, who decided it was a cancerous growth, which needed immediate removal. Four operations in all were performed, and all but the last appeared to afford some relief. He lost ground from the time the lancet was last applied. This final operation was a very delicate one, as the incision was made from the outside of the neck and very close to the principal arteries. The deceased was anxious to undergo further surgical treatment, but his physicians considered the undertaking too hazardous.

Progress.

It is very important in this age of vast material progress that a remedy be pleasing to the taste and to the eye, easily taken, acceptable to the stomach, and healthy in its nature and effects. Possessing these qualities, Syrup of Figs is the one perfect laxative and most gentle diuretic known.

EARLY MORNING FIRE.

The Colored School Building Partially Destroyed—The Damage and Insurance.

The colored school building, on Boone street near the head of Market, was partially destroyed by fire at an early hour this morning.

The alarm was sounded about half-past 1 o'clock. The fire department was very slow in responding, principally for the reason that nearly everybody hastened to the scene of the blaze without stopping to lend a helping hand in getting out the hoses carriage. It must have been a quarter of an hour after the alarm was given before any water was thrown. When the fire department once got to work, however, it required but a few minutes to extinguish the flames.

The building was a long one-story frame. The west room was entirely destroyed and the east room was badly wrecked and rendered useless. The furniture also was destroyed. A small frame addition on the north side of the west end was not damaged much.

The building was insured for $400 and the furniture for $100, in the Fire Association of Philadelphia, John Duley agent. The loss is placed at $1,000 or $1,200.

It is not known how the fire originated. The general opinion is that it was the work of an incendiary.

News About the Railroads.

C. & O. stock was up to 25½ Wednesday, says the Enquirer.

The earnings of the new "Big Four" for the third week of July show an increase of $10,587 over the combined earnings of the Bee Line and Big Four for the corresponding week of last year.

The Chesapeake and Nashville people have completed surveys from Harrodsburg, Ky., to Lancaster, Ky., and from Harrodsburg to Lebanon. The surveyors are now at work running a line through to Nashville via Gallatin and Bowling Green.

The trustees of the Richmond, Nicholasville, Irvine and Beattyville Railroad Company filed a mortgage in Jessamine County to the Central Trust Company of New York for $2,375,000. The money is to be used to complete the road.

The Enquirer announced a few days since that C. P. Huntington had purchased a controlling interest in the Chattanooga Road. This statement was doubted by a good many railroad men. Nevertheless it is true. Mr. George C. Wood, banker of New York, says: "Mr. Huntington has now a controlling interest in the property. He recently acquired something over $500,000 of the $1,000,000 of certificates."

Says the New York Star: "Chesapeake & Ohio continues to rise in a way that causes comment. A theory is advanced in regard to these stocks and the 'Big Four' as well, that, to say the least, deserves attention. It is suggested that the insiders paid high prices for the stock necessary to carry out the deal. They now propose to hold only a bare control and are working high prices to sell their surplus holdings."

The Teachers' Institute.

The institute met at 9:30 yesterday morning. After the calling of the roll, Professor Roark took up the subject, "U. S. History." Commence the teaching by telling the story of Columbus and his first voyage. Tell also the story of the Norse discoveries, for the first and second lessons using a map of the Western Hemisphere. In the third lesson require the pupil to reproduce the stories. Then begin to develop a topical outline of the subject. Tell stories and anecdotes bearing upon the history.

Recess was taken, and afterward the subject of "School Law" was presented by Superintendent Galbraith.

Professor Roark next discussed and gave forms for the heading of papers and of written work in general. Papers should be taken from every pupil at least once every two weeks. Models of topical analysis of civics, natural philosophy and botany were given.

THURSDAY AFTERNOON

Professor Roark continued the subject of topical analysis, and gave one on geology.

The subject of "Theory and Practice of Teaching" was then taken up. First organization of school registry of pupils, grading of recitations and school government.

A teachers' association was then formed. L. W. Galbreath was chosen President; Josiah Wilson, Vice President; Miss Mary Chambers, Secretary; Miss Ella Galbreath, Assistant Secretary; Miss Ida Richards, Treasurer.

Mr. Hixson gave a general description of the old Indian routes and Buffalo traces in what is now the State of Kentucky.

The query box was opened and a number of questions were answered. Adjourned to meet Friday morning at 9:15 o'clock.

The Utah wool clip for 1889 has been estimated at about 12,000,000 pounds.

THE ANGELUS BELL OF FALSE RIVER.

Thrice upon the ear with a solemn swell
Fell the pleading tones of the bell!
From the ancient steeple the timid dove
Awakens from its dream of love,
And its startled mate, like a wounded thing,
Darts in air on a quivering wing.
Across the bright water the island glows
In rosy light and in soft repose;
Like enchanted scene its radiant shore
Upon the wave is pictured o'er.

Athwart the broad and tremulous river
The last rays of the sunlight taking flight
Like leave behind them a track of light.
I gaze on the scene and lingering muse
Until twilight its shadows diffuse—
Till no echo of the Angelus bell
Reaches the ear with its solemn swell!

A Charleston druggist advertised that the milk of a cocoanut would remove freckles, and 4,000 of the nuts were sold at retail in two days to women folks. He got a commission on all sales. The freckles still abide.

Each of the thousand workmen employed on the cruiser Charleston at the time she was built contributed a ten cent piece to enrich the metal of which the vessel's bell was made.

A horse lying down on a railroad track is a more dangerous obstruction than half a dozen cows, while the engineer isn't a bit worried over a dozen hogs or a score of sheep.

Ruggles' Camp Meeting.

CAMP GROUNDS, Aug. 7th, 1889.

It is a most delightful morning. The sun is shining beautifully through the trees and the birds are singing, apparently joining in the beautiful songs of Zion.

The 6 o'clock a. m. prayer meeting was warm and devotional, but the 9 o'clock experience meeting was one that will long be remembered. The audience was composed principally of young people and it was touching to hear their testimonies. At the close of the service the parents were invited to come to the altar and pray for their children. This was a very affecting sight and brought tears to many eyes. God is blessing the labors of this camp meeting, and those attending are not only enjoying rest to their bodies in this delightful grove but a gospel feast besides.

At the 11 o'clock service Rev. Wm. Jones preached from Jeremiah, 17 chapter. At 3 o'clock Bro. Hanford gave us another of his splendid sermons from Acts 3, 9th. Everybody has a good word for Hanford.

At night Rev. W. H. Childers preached. At the close of this sermon the altar was again filled and one or two conversions. The service was well attended and the people seemed loth to leave the tabernacle but lingered around the altar till a late hour. It looks now that this is going to be one of the most successful of all the camp meetings ever held on these grounds, both spiritually and otherwise. J. W.

Dominique hens make good mothers. According to the Poultry Journal they are, in fact, difficult to beat as all-purpose fowls.

The editor of the Bracken Chronicle talks as though he knows something about it. He says: "If tobacco growers want to grow big leafy tobacco and the quality in demand this year and a good quality in demand every year, observe three material points. Plow often, top at about fourteen leaves and let your tobacco thoroughly ripen before cutting. The non-observance of these three material points, or any one of them, will affect the price of your tobacco when you haul to market."

Shelby County is now ahead in the yield of wheat per acre this year. The Shelby News says: "There is no telling what Shelby County land is capable of producing, if properly cultivated. In threshing his wheat, last week, James V. Goodman secured a yield of 60 bushels to the acre from the first two acres and a half. After running the wheat through the cleaner he still had a yield of 58 bushels of clean wheat to the acre."

If we mistake not, Mr. Goodman is a native of Mason County. The Shelby land may have produced that much wheat, but a Mason Countian had to handle the crop.

THE ENTRIES.

Of course you'll not miss the "Blue Ribbon Fair." Everybody's goin'—that is nearly everybody—and you can't afford to stay away. You'll miss the biggest meeting ever held on the grounds if you do. Maysville, you know, never does anything by halves. Fact, and the coming fair will not prove an exception. It promises to "get away" with all previous meetings. Why? Principally because it is being more widely advertised and offers finer attractions. The directors know a thing or two, and realize that a liberal use of printer's ink pays. The papers throughout the surrounding country, along the two railroads, far and near, are talking of Maysville's fair, and immense crowds can be looked for. A week of sport and pleasure is assured. Remember the dates, August 21, 22 23 and 24. Some of the finest trotters and pacers in the country will compete for the stakes and purses. The list is larger than ever before. The entries for the purse races closed August 5th. The company presents the best fields of horses ever entered at any fair in the world. Read them:

Work of Smugglers.

STEPS TAKEN TO SUPPRESS IT.

The Matter Brought to the Attention of the Treasury Department—Precautions Against the Introduction of Contagious Diseases From Foreign Vessels—Appointments—Other Washington News.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Surgeon General Hamilton has received a letter from Sewall Cobb, ex-mayor of Pensacola, Fla., in which he states that a great deal of smuggling is carried on on the coast of that state, and makes some suggestion for the suppression of the nefarious business. The smuggling is so extensive, says Mr. Cobb, that that every hour in the day persons engaged in it could be caught if an effort was only made to do so.

The United States custom officer who is expected to suppress it, Mr. Cobb says, has but one "tub" for 600 miles of coast, and she is of such draught as to be compelled to keep out of gunshot distance of nine out of ten of the localities frequented by the smugglers. The smugglers have become so bold that when they see the smoke of a steamer they simply fish until the danger is past.

In conclusion Mr. Cobb says: "In this matter the state board of health has been as useless as last year's almanac, and if they have done nothing in five months how long will it take them to begin to formulate a plan? Cannot you take this Spanish bull by the horns under your own power? A small sailing vessel armed with ten men and proper determination will, in thirty days, knock the danger clear across the gulf stream in the direction of Cuba."

Dr. Hamilton referred the letter to the treasury department.

Preparing for the Next Census.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Charles T. Pidgeon, of Boston, who for years has been connected with the census bureau of that state, had a conference with Superintendent Porter and his bureau chiefs yesterday, and explained his method for controlling and verifying census statistics. Another method championed by Mr. Hallerth, of this city, is also under consideration by Superintendent Porter. Both plans have been referred to a committee of experts in the bureau who will report in favor of one or the other within a few weeks.

Precautions Against Contagious Diseases.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Surgeon General Hamilton, of the marine hospital service, is in receipt of a letter from Dr. Porter, of the state board of health of Florida, in which he requests that all foreign vessels seized by the revenue officers, when from infected ports, may be taken to Dry Tortugas and there thoroughly disinfected and cleaned before being allowed to enter any customs port of the state of Florida. Dr. Hamilton has sent the letter to the treasury department with his approval.

Interior Department Appointments.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Secretary Noble has made the following appointments in the interior department: L. P. Parker, of Missouri, law clerk in the office of the assistant attorney general; Thomas W. Blackb., of California, chief of division in the Indian office; Samuel L. Taggart, of Iowa, chief of division pension offices; Frank M. Lewis, of California, special Indian agent; David Moore, of Missouri, special agent in deputation claims.

It Must Be Examined.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—The treasury department in reply to a letter from the collector of customs, at Tampa, Fla., in which he requested to be informed under what provisions, if any European baggage can be transported through the United States to Cuba without examination, says such baggage must be duly entered and examined, and re-requests the collector to enforce this law.

Guarding the Newly Acquired Lands.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Secretary Noble has requested the secretary of war to take such action as he may deem necessary to keep intruders out of that portion of the Sioux Indian reservation which these Indians have agreed to surrender to the United States.

Off for a Short Vacation.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—Acting Secretary of State Wharton will leave Washington to-morrow for Boston to remain until next Wednesday. During his absence Third Assistant Secretary Moore will be acting secretary of state.

Postal Clerk Arrested.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 9.—John H. Gale, late a clerk in the Plymouth, O., post-office, has been arrested for tampering with the mails.

CLEVELAND, O., Aug. 9.—Last night Charles Oberg, a 19-year-old boy, attempted to crawl under the canvas of a circus which has been giving daily performances here for the past three or four weeks, and was struck across the neck with a piece of rubber hose by one of the attaches of the show. He immediately became unconscious, and died early this morning. Death resulted from an injury to the wind pipe. Charles W. Mullaman, Louis Schitt and Louis Cook, members of the circus company, have been arrested.

The Partner of Forger Allen Arrested and Locked Up.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—Ferdinand W. Hoeft, partner of E. S. Allen in the iron business, was arrested yesterday evening charged with complicity in Allen's issue of forged street railway stock. On being questioned by Inspector Byrnes, Hoeft said that he first became acquainted with Allen in 1879, the occasion of the acquaintance being that he was manager of the Bowers theater, and Mrs. Allen known on the stage as Ethel Allen, got an engagement there.

Afterward Hoeft and Allen went into business together, Hoeft assigning to Allen a number of patents, for which Allen gave him in all 668 shares of the railway stock, worth $180,000. Hoeft hypothecated these with various banks, borrowing $90,000 on them and putting the money into the business. He claims not to have known that the stock was bogus. He was locked up.

Heavy Hail Storm.

ABERDEEN, Dak., Aug. 9.—A heavy hail storm was reported last evening from northern central townships of Brown county, cutting a swath several miles in length through unharvested grain and doing great damage to farmers in the vicinity of Plana and Ordway, who will lose most of their grain. Stones eight inches in circumference fell during the storm.

Train Robbers Still at Large.

DENVER, Col., Aug. 9.—No trace has yet been found of the Thompson Springs, Utah, train robbers. The railroad and express companies both offer large rewards for the capture of the outlaws, and several posses have started out in search of them. It is believed here that the gang is the same one which some months ago robbed the Telluride, Col., National bank of $40,000.

Fighters Arrested.

SAN FRANCISCO, Aug. 9.—Pat. Killen, while giving a sparring exhibition last night at a variety theater with Professor Anderson, of Chicago, was arrested by Capt. Short. Anderson, Madden, Pope, Gooding and several others who were present were also taken into custody, but the whole party was released in $50 bail each. The reason for the arrests was stated by the police to be that Killen had made an offer to knock a man out in four rounds or forfeit $100.

Steamer on Fire.

NEW YORK, Aug. 9.—The steamer Henry E. Bishop, for Coney Island, with about one hundred passengers aboard, was found to be afire just before she left her pier at West Tenth street yesterday. The passengers were all landed safely, amid some excitement. The fire, which was in the engine room, was soon put out, and the loss will not exceed $150.

The stock market opened moderately active but lower than at the close last evening. Half a dozen stocks, however, monopolized seven-eighths of the entire amount of business done. Shortly after the opening the market became firm and the losses were quickly made up, though the advances were confined to small fractions in the majority of the list. After 11 o'clock Lake Erie and Western preferred, made a net gain of 1 1/2 and at noon the market was dull and steady at the close to the best figures of the morning.

"In the spring of 1887 I was all run down. I would get up in the morning with so tired a feeling, and was so weak that I could hardly get around. I bought a bottle of Paine's Celery Compound, and before I had taken it a week I felt very much better. I can cheerfully recommend it to all who need a building up and strengthening medicine."
